

Assistant Campus Director Job Description

What is Summer Springboard?

Our mission at Summer Springboard is to help students increase their self-awareness so they can make decisions about college selection, academic majors, and career planning that reflect their personal vision for success. Our innovative pre-college summer programs, offered at some of the nation's leading colleges and universities, combine the benefits of an academically challenging summer experience with tools and frameworks for personal leadership development and self-discovery.

We are hiring for the position of Assistant Campus Director at several campus locations for our Summer 2023 programs. The employment contract begins in May 2023 and continues through end of July/August 2023 which covers staff training (Training) and all program session dates.

Position Responsibilities

As Assistant Campus Director, you play a key leadership and support role on our campus program team! You are an energetic individual with great people skills who is organized, logistically-minded, and likes to coordinate people and projects. In this position, you will be afforded the opportunity to change lives and help teenagers realize their potential, dreams, and passions.

- Lead the academic course coordination and a team of Instructors, who work directly with the students.

- Act as main point of contact on campus for Instructors, responding to questions and concerns regarding classrooms, supplies, or excursions. The Instructors are hired and trained by SSB HQ, so the Assistant Director is their liaison on campus.
- Serve and step in as Campus Director when needed when Campus Director is unavailable. The Assistant Director is considered the “Number 2” on the campus team, and serves an important role of backstopping and supporting the Campus Director with other responsibilities outside of the academic course coordination.

The Assistant Campus Director reports to the Campus Director located on their respective campus. You will be required to live alongside students and will share responsibility for the students 24/7 while programs are in session.

These are the main areas of work for the Assistant Campus Director, but like any position that involves working with young people, no two days are the same. That is part of the appeal that draws so many of us to this field. The Assistant Campus Director will be faced with different scenarios and new challenges, and will be expected to be flexible, communicative, know when to ask for support from the HQ team, and be graceful under pressure

Timeline

There are three phases to the Assistant Campus Director role:

Pre-Program : The Assistant Director will come on board in early May 2023 for training. Through mid-June, you will become familiar with Summer Springboard and your campus program . You will attend the in-person Director’s Training organized by Summer Springboard in San Diego, and deliver and participate in any virtual trainings with the broader residential staff team. While the work will increase as we approach the start of programs, we estimate an average of 3-5 hours per week through the start of your campus program.

Program: There are four to six weeks of actual programming, respective of each campus. During this time, the Assistant Campus Director will coordinate and execute the daily operations of the academic courses operating at their campus.. They will supervise, collaborate with and lead all Instructors and Resident Advisors, in addition to providing support with other programming and operations as designated by the Campus Director. After each program session, they will provide course and performance feedback to Instructors based on the results of the student evaluations. The Assistant Campus Director will serve 24/7 on-call for any emergencies and backstopping the Campus Director in communication with parents/guardians and university partners.

Post-Program: The Assistant Campus Director will support the wrap-up of their campus location. This includes the pack-up of program, budget and staff reconciliations, and debriefing with HQ staff and Instructors.
