

Spanish Language Studies

New student admissions for
Summer 2025 are open.

Program Highlights

- Review all vocabulary and grammar to move your Spanish to the next level
- Immerse yourself in Spanish speaking, reading and writing to build fluency skills
- Review various techniques to help you continue improving beyond the course
- Learn about varied dialects, customs and culture in Spanish speaking countries
- Map out the Spanish major and minor to better understand your options

2025 Dates

- Session 1: July 6 - July 18

Academic Program Overview

Are you looking for an exciting career in travel or translation? Or perhaps you desire to boost your skills and you salary as a bilingual professional. Spanish language skills are in high demand in the United States, with over 43 million families who speak Spanish at home.

If you want to improve your Spanish, along with your resume and opportunities, Spanish Language Studies is the course for you. In this course, you will develop your skills in Spanish focusing on all forms of communication: listening, speaking, reading, and writing. The course will be interactive enough to allow you to improve your language fluency. Whatever you major, a minor in Spanish will teach you enough Spanish to be considered for positions that are in need of bilingual skills.

Excursions

Students will visit local businesses where Spanish fluency is necessary or desired as a job requirement/preference.

Instructor

Claudia Gwinn, Lecturer
Cal Poly SLO

Claudia Gwinn is from Barcelona, Spain. In addition to lecturing at Cal Poly, she teaches ESL to migrant workers through The Field Institute as a substitute and does translations and interpretations for local schools, like Family Partnership Charter School. Claudia speaks Spanish, French, German, Italian, Russian, Japanese and Chinese.
